Lisan ul Quran — Lecture 18

Jumla Ismiyyah • Dama'ir as Muftada

1. The parts of a Jumla Ismiyyah and its rules

A Jumla Ismiyyah has two parts. The Muftada is the Ism with which a Jumla Ismiyyah begins, and the Khabar is the Ism that tells something about the Muftada.

Aspect	Rule
Wus'at	The Muftada comes as Ma'rifah while the Khabar comes as Nakirah
I'raab	Both the Muftada and the Khabar come as Marfoo'
Jins and 'Adad	There will be agreement between the Muftada and the Khabar in gender and number

The Ism ud Dameer

A word used in place of a noun is called an Ism ud Dameer, as in هُوَ ، هُما ، أَنْتَما ، هُنَّ ، نَحْنُ ، كَ ، كُمْ ، هُمْ .

2. The grammar of the word Dama'ir itself

The plural of ضَمَائِرِ is ضَمَائِرُ , and it is a Jam' Mukassar. Since it stands on the pattern of Muntaha al-Jumoo', it is Ghayr Munsarif.

Marfoo'	Mansoob	Majroor
ضَمَائِرُ	ضَمَائِرَ	ضَمَائِرِ
الضَّمَائِرُ	الضَّمَائِرَ	الضَّمَائِرِ

Worth noting: In the first row the state of jarr carries a fathah, because a Ghayr Munsarif noun does not accept a kasrah. But in the second row, once اَلْ has entered it, a kasrah has appeared in the state of jarr. This is the same rule that was met in Lecture 11.

3. The categories of Dama'ir

In Arabic the personal dama'ir are of three categories.

Category	Definition	English term
Gha'ib	the one being spoken about	Third Person
Hadir or Mukhatab	the one being spoken to	Second Person
Mutakallim	the one who is speaking	First Person

- The total number of dama'ir is fourteen.
- In respect of wus'at the dama'ir are Ma'rifah, so they can serve as the Mubtada.
- When dama'ir come as the Mubtada they will be Marfoo', because the Mubtada is always Marfoo'.

The difference of order between Arabic and English

The order of the dama'ir in Arabic grammar differs from that of English. English generally sets them out in the order first person, second person, third person — that is, the speaker first, then the one spoken to, and last the one spoken about.

The Arabic order: Arabic grammar, by contrast, arranges the dama'ir in the order Gha'ib, then Mukhatab, then Mutakallim. This is the order to keep in mind when memorising them.

4. The complete table of the Dama'ir Marfoo'ah

The fourteen dama'ir below are the ones in the state of raf', and these are the ones that serve as the Mubtada.

Form	Wahid	Tathniyah	Jam'
Mudhakkar Gha'ib	هُوَ	هُمَا	هُمْ
Mu'annath Gha'ib	هِيَ	هُمَا	هُنَّ
Mudhakkar Hadir	أَنْتَ	أَنْتُمَا	أَنْتُمْ
Mu'annath Hadir	أَنْتِ	أَنْتُمَا	أَنْتُنَّ
Mutakallim (both genders)	أَنَا	—	نَحْنُ

- All the dama'ir of the Gha'ib begin with the letter هـ.

- All the dama'ir of the Hadir begin with اَنَّ.
- In the dual, one and the same dameer serves for masculine and feminine alike: هُمَا in the Gha'ib and أَنْتُمَا in the Hadir.
- For the Mutakallim there is no distinction of gender, and no dual form either — for two speakers as well as for many, نَحْنُ alone is used.

5. A Dameer in place of an Ism ul 'Alam

In the table below, see how a sentence built with an Ism ul 'Alam takes shape when a dameer is put in the place of the Mubtada.

Form	Wahid	Tathniyah	Jam'
with the Ism ul 'Alam	زَيْدٌ مُسْلِمٌ	زَيْدٌ وَحَامِدٌ مُسْلِمَانِ	زَيْدٌ وَحَامِدٌ وَمَحْمُودٌ مُسْلِمُونَ
with a Dameer	هُوَ مُسْلِمٌ	هُمَا مُسْلِمَانِ	هُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ
with the Ism ul 'Alam	رَيْتُبٌ مُسْلِمَةٌ	مَرْيَمُ وَرَيْتُبٌ مُسْلِمَتَانِ	رَيْتُبٌ وَمَرْيَمُ وَفَاطِمَةُ مُسْلِمَاتٌ
with a Dameer	هِيَ مُسْلِمَةٌ	هُمَا مُسْلِمَتَانِ	هُنَّ مُسْلِمَاتٌ

6. Dama'ir as Mubtada — the full drills

The tables below set out all four forms and all three numbers together. In every sentence the Mubtada is a dameer and the Khabar is Nakirah, and both are Marfoo'.

With the word Muslim

Form	Wahid	Tathniyah	Jam'
Gha'ib Mudhakkar	هُوَ مُسْلِمٌ	هُمَا مُسْلِمَانِ	هُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ
Gha'ib Mu'annath	هِيَ مُسْلِمَةٌ	هُمَا مُسْلِمَتَانِ	هُنَّ مُسْلِمَاتٌ
Mukhatab Mudhakkar	أَنْتَ مُسْلِمٌ	أَنْتُمَا مُسْلِمَانِ	أَنْتُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ
Mukhatab Mu'annath	أَنْتِ مُسْلِمَةٌ	أَنْتُمَا مُسْلِمَتَانِ	أَنْتُنَّ مُسْلِمَاتٌ
Mutakallim Mudhakkar	أَنَا مُسْلِمٌ	—	نَحْنُ مُسْلِمُونَ
Mutakallim Mu'annath	أَنَا مُسْلِمَةٌ	—	نَحْنُ مُسْلِمَاتٌ

With the word Salih

Form	Wahid	Tathniyah	Jam'
Gha'ib Mudhakkar	هُوَ صَالِحٌ	هُمَا صَالِحَانِ	هُمْ صَالِحُونَ
Gha'ib Mu'annath	هِيَ صَالِحَةٌ	هُمَا صَالِحَتَانِ	هُنَّ صَالِحَاتٌ
Mukhatab Mudhakkar	أَنْتَ صَالِحٌ	أَنْتُمَا صَالِحَانِ	أَنْتُمْ صَالِحُونَ
Mukhatab Mu'annath	أَنْتِ صَالِحَةٌ	أَنْتُمَا صَالِحَتَانِ	أَنْتُنَّ صَالِحَاتٌ
Mutakallim Mudhakkar	أَنَا صَالِحٌ	—	نَحْنُ صَالِحُونَ
Mutakallim Mu'annath	أَنَا صَالِحَةٌ	—	نَحْنُ صَالِحَاتٌ

With the word Talib

Form	Wahid	Tathniyah	Jam'
Gha'ib Mudhakkar	هُوَ طَالِبٌ	هُمَا طَالِبَانِ	هُمْ طَالِبُونَ
Gha'ib Mu'annath	هِيَ طَالِبَةٌ	هُمَا طَالِبَتَانِ	هُنَّ طَالِبَاتٌ
Mukhatab Mudhakkar	أَنْتَ طَالِبٌ	أَنْتُمَا طَالِبَانِ	أَنْتُمْ طَالِبُونَ
Mukhatab Mu'annath	أَنْتِ طَالِبَةٌ	أَنْتُمَا طَالِبَتَانِ	أَنْتُنَّ طَالِبَاتٌ
Mutakallim Mudhakkar	أَنَا طَالِبٌ	—	نَحْنُ طَالِبُونَ
Mutakallim Mu'annath	أَنَا طَالِبَةٌ	—	نَحْنُ طَالِبَاتٌ

Look at the Mutakallim row: In the Mutakallim rows the dual column is empty. Arabic has no separate dual form for the Mutakallim; for two speakers as well, نَحْنُ is used, and the Khabar comes in the plural form.

7. Dama'ir for Ghayr 'Aqil things

In Arabic the use of a dameer for a Ghayr 'Aqil thing follows its number. In the singular and the dual the ordinary rule applies, but in the plural there is something particular.

Case	Wahid	Tathniyah	Jam'
Ism Dhahir (masc.)	الْقَلَمُ جَدِيدٌ	الْقَلَمَانِ جَدِيدَانِ	الْقَلَامُ جَدِيدَةٌ / جَدِيدَاتٌ
with a Dameer	هُوَ جَدِيدٌ	هُمَا جَدِيدَانِ	هِيَ جَدِيدَةٌ / هُنَّ جَدِيدَاتٌ
Ism Dhahir (fem.)	السَّاعَةُ جَدِيدَةٌ	السَّاعَتَانِ جَدِيدَتَانِ	السَّاعَاتُ جَدِيدَةٌ / جَدِيدَاتٌ
with a Dameer	هِيَ جَدِيدَةٌ	هُمَا جَدِيدَتَانِ	هِيَ جَدِيدَةٌ / هُنَّ جَدِيدَاتٌ

An important rule: For a Ghayr 'Aqil Jam' Mukassar the Khabar is most often brought as singular feminine, though on some occasions a feminine plural may also be used. The same ruling applies to the dameer: for a Ghayr 'Aqil plural the dameer هِيَ will come, and sometimes هُنَّ as well.

Look closely at the plural column. Whether the Ism Dhahir is masculine, as الْقَلَامُ is, or feminine, as السَّاعَاتُ is, one and the same dameer has come for both — هِيَ — because both are Ghayr 'Aqil.

8. Evidence from the Qur'an

هُوَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ مِنْهُ آيَاتٌ مُحْكَمَاتٌ هُنَّ أُمُّ الْكِتَابِ وَأُخَرُ مُتَشَابِهَاتٌ

(Surah Al 'Imran: 7)

Translation: It is He who has sent down upon you the Book. In it are verses of established meaning — they are the foundation of the Book — and others which are allegorical.

In this verse the dameer هُنَّ has been used for آيَات. آيَات is a plural of the Ghayr 'Aqil, and for such plurals the singular feminine dameer generally comes; but as is plain here, the feminine plural dameer may come as well.

One more point: At the very beginning of this same verse, هُوَ has come as the Mubtada and the Ism ul Mawsul الَّذِي is its Khabar. This is a most plain Qur'anic example of a pronoun serving as the Mubtada.

9. Hadith

أَنَا زَعِيمٌ بِبَيْتٍ فِي رِضَى الْجَنَّةِ لِمَنْ تَرَكَ الْمِرَاءَ وَإِنْ كَانَ مُحِقًّا، وَبَيْتٍ فِي وَسْطِ الْجَنَّةِ لِمَنْ تَرَكَ الْكَذِبَ وَإِنْ كَانَ مَارِجًا، وَبَيْتٍ فِي أَعْلَى الْجَنَّةِ لِمَنْ حَسَنَ خُلُقَهُ

(narrated from Abu Umamah, may Allah be pleased with him)

Translation: I guarantee a house in the outskirts of Paradise for one who gives up disputing even when he is in the right; and a house in the middle of Paradise for one who gives up lying even in jest; and a house in the highest part of Paradise for one who makes his character good.

This hadith too opens with a pronoun. أَنَا is a dameer of the Mutakallim and is the Mubtada, while رَضِيَ is a Nakirah noun and is the Khabar — both Marfoo'.

Summary

1. A Jumla Ismiyyah has two parts: the Muftada and the Khabar. The Muftada is Ma'rifah and the Khabar Nakirah, both are Marfoo', and both agree in gender and number.
2. A word used in place of a noun is called an Ism ud Dameer.
3. The plural of ضَمَائِرِ is ضَمَائِرِ, which is Ghayr Munsarif because it stands on the pattern of Muntaha al-Jumoo'.
4. Once al- enters ضَمَائِرِ it accepts a kasrah in the state of jarr: الضَّمَائِرِ.
5. The personal dama'ir are of three categories: Gha'ib, Hadir or Mukhatab, and Mutakallim.
6. The total number of dama'ir is fourteen, and all of them are Ma'rifah, so they can serve as the Muftada.
7. When dama'ir come as the Muftada they are Marfoo', because the Muftada is always Marfoo'.
8. English orders them first person, second, third; Arabic orders them Gha'ib, Mukhatab, Mutakallim.
9. All the dama'ir of the Gha'ib begin with ة and all those of the Hadir with أَنْ.
10. In the dual one and the same dameer serves both genders: هُمَا in the Gha'ib and أَنْتُمَا in the Hadir.
11. The Mutakallim makes no distinction of gender and has no dual form — نَحْنُ serves for two and for many alike.
12. For a Ghayr 'Aqil singular and dual the ordinary rule applies, the dameer following the gender of the noun.
13. For a Ghayr 'Aqil plural both the dameer and the Khabar most often come as singular feminine, though the feminine plural is permissible.
14. This is why الْأَقْلَامُ, though masculine, takes the dameer هِيَ.
15. In Surah Al 'Imran verse 7, هُنَّ has come for آيَاتٍ, which is an example of the second permissible form.
16. At the beginning of that same verse هُوَ is the Muftada and الَّذِي is its Khabar.

Exercise

1. Define both parts of a Jumla Ismiyyah and write all three of its rules.
2. Define the Ism ud Dameer and write five dama'ir.
3. Write all three states of I'raab of ضَمَائِرِ, without al- and with al-, and give the reason for the difference.
4. Write the Arabic and English names of all three categories of dama'ir.
5. Explain the difference of order between Arabic and English in setting out the dama'ir.
6. Set out the fourteen Dama'ir Marfoo'ah in the form of a table.
7. What is the opening mark of the dama'ir of the Gha'ib and of the Hadir?

8. Why is there no dual form for the Mutakallim?
9. Form sentences with the word Salih for all four forms and all three numbers.
10. Rewrite رَيْدٌ وَحَامِدٌ مُسْلِمَانِ using a dameer.
11. What is the ruling on the dameer and the Khabar for a Ghayr 'Aqil plural?
12. الْأَقْلَامُ is masculine, so why does the dameer هِيَ come for it?
13. Identify both pronouns in Surah Al 'Imran verse 7 and state what each is doing.
14. Separate the Muftada and the Khabar in the first clause of the hadith.

سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ، أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ، أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْكَ

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ

اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ
